The biggest problem is my spoken English. I'm not outgoing and I'm afraid to speak English in class. I am often too nervous to think of the words I need, so I just hide behind my textbooks and never put up my hand. In my free time, I hardly ever talk with my classmates in English.

I'm a very slow reader. While reading, I try to translate every word into Chinese. And I will feel worried when I meet any word I don't know. I have to stop to look it up.

I find it's easy to remember grammar rules. However, I always make a lot of mistakes in writing. How can I use the rules correctly?

Are You a Good English Learner?

Do you think of yourself as a good English learner or not? Do the following test honestly and check out.

Mother Stops Him

Here is a picture from a news report. In the picture, we can see three people. An old woman is lying on the ground. A boy is trying to lift her up, but his mother stops him at once. "Don't do that! Others may think it's you who have knocked her down," she says.

In my opinion, the mother's behavior is not right. A mother should encourage her child to give others a hand. How can a child become warm-hearted if he is educated in such a way? And the old woman might feel worse or even be hit by the traffic unless we move her away in time.

I hope it won't happen again. Let's trust each other and help anyone in trouble.

Good evening! Welcome to our program Music Stars Around the World. Today I'm going to introduce a new band called "The Sams". Have you heard of it yet? This band was set up in America earlier this year. There are five people in the band and they are all teenage boys. More and more people love to listen to their country music, because it has a new style. Their dream is to go on a world tour. They've already made three popular CDs. Now, let's enjoy one of their songs.
